Parental Consent Form for Community Outings

This parent consent form gives permission for your child to participate in community outings during the instructional day 8:30am -3:00pm throughout The Janus School's 2017 Academic and Afternoon Summer Programs. These activities may be conducted to increase student awareness of the local community and to further enrich teacher lesson plans. All such activities will be monitored by at least two instructors and the plans and purpose for a given community walk will be conveyed to you by email or phone at least two days prior to it taking place.
